PAROS ISLAND TOUR

Duration: ± 8 hours (09:00 to 17:00) Departure: Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday subject to participation

Tour starts with a transfer from your hotel (or a stop located next to your hotel) to Paroikia town where an English-speaking guide will welcome you. Visit of Paroikia town. As we walk to the castle and the church of Saints Constantine and Helen, where is the old town and the most scenic spot of the town. Then, walking through the alleys, we arrive at one of the main attractions of Paros, Panagia Ekatonapyliani, one of the oldest churches in the country built around 400 AC., also called the church with One hundred gates. Not only is an architectural and archaeological monument, the church of Our Lady of the Hundred Gates is one of the most important pilgrimage sites throughout Greece. From there, the bus takes us to the port of Pounta, where we will take the ferry to Antiparos Island. We will stroll through the picturesque little town of Antiparos Chora and visit the Venetian fortress (15th century) which is still inhabited. You will have some free time there for lunch or even to swim. Return by ferry to Paros / Pounta port. Route to Lefkes village. You will explore the former capital of Paros. It is built amphitheatrically in cruciform shape, at an altitude of 250 meters, at the center of the island. It is surrounded by small forest areas, olive groves and vineyards. It is characterized by its beautiful, full of pines forest, which covers one side of the village. Our last stop will be Naousa, the beautiful fishing village with all its Cycladic charm. We take a little walk through its small roads and the port with the colorful fishing boats, which is one of the most picturesque in Greece. An ideal background for great photos! The tour ends around 17:00 and you will be transferred back to your hotel or a stop next to it.

Including: - R/T transfers from / to your hotel or a stop located next to it - Full day bus tour - English speaking licensed guide. - R/T ferry's tickets to Antiparos
