Your culture-packed Thailand trip begins with an exciting evening exploring Bangkok's bustling streets. Then, spend the following two days getting to know the city's details with an iconic tuk-tuk ride through twisting neighborhoods and a guided city tour to check out Wat Po, the Grand Palace, and Wat Arun. Next, wander the famous railroad-lined Mae Klong Railway Market and the Damnoen Saduak Floating Market before continuing to Kanchanaburi. After a full day in River Kwai, you'll return to Bangkok refreshed and ready to fly north.

The second half of your trip begins with three days in Chiang Mai. You'll take in the city's impressive Wat Phra Singh and Wat Phan Tao monuments before spending a day at an elephant sanctuary learning about these gentle giants. Adrenaline seekers will love letting loose with a day on the Eagle Track Zipline Adventure; then, it's time to trade forest for the beach. A short flight brings you to Phuket, your home for the final three nights. Kayak along the coast of the Andaman Sea and soak up the sun on the white sands of Freedom Beach until it's time to catch your flight home.
