Start your trip in style with two days of discovering the temples and markets of Bangkok. Get your first taste of Thailand's flavor-packed cuisine by sampling street food in Chinatown, then visit the famous sites of the Grand Palace and the Temple of the Emerald Buddha before slowing things down with an overnight stay in Erawan National Park. After a morning touring Ayutthaya, settle in for an overnight train journey to Chiang Mai. Over the following three days, you'll soak up the pristine nature surrounding you with visits to Doi Inthanon National Park and a bamboo rafting adventure down the Mae Wang River. Leaving the city behind, you'll take a short flight to Phuket, then transfer to Khao Lak, your home, for the last four nights of your trip. Known for its sandy beaches and excellent diving sites, it's easy to fill your days cruising along the famous James Bond Island and discovering the underwater world of Coral Bay and Payu Island. Before heading back to Phuket to catch your flight home, spend your last day between the beautiful beaches of Nang Thong, Bang Niang, and White Sand.
