Your nature-packed itinerary starts in the busy city of Bangkok. After a day of checking out the highlights along Khao San Road, you'll join a guide for a tour of the Grand Palace, Wat Phra Kaew, and Wat Pho before boarding a wooden rice barge to enjoy dinner while sailing along the Chao Phraya River. The following morning, fly to Chiang Mai and immerse yourself in the mountainous forests of the north. Take a scenic boat ride along the Mae Ping River, interact with elephants at the Elephant Jungle Sanctuary, and even learn the secrets of Thai cuisine at a Love Cooking School class. Next, fly south to Phuket and spend your afternoon as you please, ziplining at Hanuman World Phuket or feasting on seafood on the lively Bangla Road. Early the following day, you'll continue to Khao Sok National Park, home to Asian elephants, flying squirrels, and gibbons. After an evening each at the Khao Sok Boutique Camp and Cheow Lan Floating Bungalows, you'll return to Phuket refreshed by nature. Over your last two days, explore the mangrove forests and tiny caves in Ao Phang Nga National Park and hop between the island's picture-perfect beaches until it's time to depart for the airport.
