DAY 3 - Wilderness Tour, Denali

This morning, head into Denali National Park, a vast region of unspoiled beauty, home to awe-inspiring Denali, the highest peak in North America. Today's Tundra Wilderness Tour takes you through the National Park, and if the weather is clear, you'll see Denali. During the early part of the trip, keep a sharp lookout for the most impressive animal in the park - the Alaskan moose, largest in the world, weighing up to 1600 pounds. It's possible that you'll see Dall sheep on the mountainsides, caribou anywhere above the tree line, eagles soaring above, and grizzly brown bears too! It's possible to also see and hear howling wolves in the distance. As you travel over mountain passes; the highest points offer expansive views of the Alaska Range on the horizon. While glaciers cover one-sixth of the Park, the sub-arctic wilderness also supports many species of colourful flowering plants. Return back to the hotel for an evening at leisure

Overnight: Denali

DAY 4 - Depart Denali, Arrive in Seward

Travel today from Denali to Seward on the beautiful Parks Highway. Continue on one of the world's greatest scenic drives along the Turnagain Arm, where the mountains rise out of the sea and the ever-changing landscape is abundant with wildlife. Arrive in the coastal community of Seward, the most popular port in Alaska, with its colourful history of Russian fur traders and gold prospectors. Upon arrival, spend the remainder of your day at leisure

Overnight: Seward

DAY 5 - Kenai Fjords National Park

Today, join a boat cruise from Seward into Kenai Fjords National Park. The Park features fjords, calving glaciers, and the massive 300 square mile Harding Ice Field. The waters of Kenai Fjords are teeming with marine wildlife. Return to the harbour for an evening at leisure

Overnight: Seward

DAY 6 - Exit Glacier, Travel to Homer

This morning, visit Exit Glacier, located in the Kenai Fjords National Park. Walk along the trail and river beds to see the changes in vegetation and the melting glacier. Depart to Kenai, with its dramatic backdrop of the Alaska Range. Then, continue the journey south, to the town of Homer. Upon arrival, head towards Homer Spit for a walk to see the harbour.

Overnight: Homer

DAY 7 - Full Day in Homer

Discover the unique coastal town of Homer on your day at leisure; activities like fishing and sea kayaking are some options. Perhaps try the Islands and Ocean Visitor Center, "Your window to the largest seabird refuge in the world." There are exhibits inside as well as interpretive trails throughout its sixty-acre site, or explore this tempting town with its quirky gift shops and art galleries, and plenty of fantastic seafood restaurants
