The capacity of its building can hold till 25000 worshippers at one time, and its square outside more than 80000 worshippers. After the visit we will leave Casablanca and drive south to Marrakech. Upon the arrival we will check in to your Hotel.

Day 3: Marrakech

Today is for Marrakech. This amazing city is located in the middle of the country; its location attracted many dynasties along the Moroccan History and made it as their Capital. That is why you will find the walls and building of the ancient medina is talking just history. Thus, the first historical Monument we will visit is the Koutoubya Mosque; the landmark and the highest building of the city. This mosque dates back to the 12th century and will be visited only from the outside. After that we are going to move on the 16th century Jewish quarter and into the Bahia Palace of the 19th century. The latter, is one of the marvelous palaces in the country and was owned by the grand vizier of Morocco in the late 19th century. From this palace we will wander in the twisted alleyways of the medina to see its traditional Markets and souks. It will be then time to visit the famous square of Marrakech Djamaa El fna where you can find snake charmers, Acrobats, Musicians... The rest of the day will be free.

Day 4: Marrakech - Essaouira

We leave Marrakech after breakfast we take a leisurely drive to Essaouira; a colorful fishing town situated within 15th century Portuguese fortifications, where great beaches and surf beckon. You have the day to relax on the beach or alternatively explore the UNESCO-listed medina with its various souks and woodcarving workshops. Any city gate leads to the medina, so you're unlikely to get lost. The beach is in front of the Medina and there are plenty of cafés with terraces, both ideal for relaxing for a few hours. Blue doors and window frames abound as do the artists shops – buy a carpet or Thuya woodcarving or sit on the beach sipping a mint tea as the sun sets. There is the opportunity to do an optional cooking class with a local family in the evening.

Day 5: Essaouira - Casablanca

It is time to leave Essaouira and head up to Casablanca, en-route we will have an optional lunch at the fabulous city of Eloulidia, then pass by the city of Eljadida built and named by the Portuguese as Mazagan. Late afternoon we will arrive to Casablanca where you will have some free time. Overnight Casablanca.

Day 6: Casablanca Departure

Today marks the end of your Magical Morocco Vacation. You take home a big smile and a lifetime of memories that much is certain! You will be transferred back to the Casablanca airport to board your flight.
